PENNY BLACK at Pearl Street Stamping

Pearl Street Stamping sells Penny Black. Over 20 years ago, Penny Black chose to name itself after the world's first postage stamp that was made in England, the penny black. The penny black was revolutionary, in that, it would make the mail accessible to almost everyone. A single postage rate of one penny would be paid in advance for all standard-weight letters - the first modern postal system was off and running! The name and the story embodied what the company, Penny Black, wanted to create: special stamps that would be new, unique, quality designs that would give stampers options they never had before. At Penny Black, professional illustrators are commissioned to create designs that are elegant and exciting to use. Penny Black stamps, dies, papers and stickers are designed to integrate style and color for creating the best handicraft projects ever. For card making ideas, stop by Pearl Street or check out Penny Black's website and blog at www.pennyblackinc.com

- The Swarovski 2018 Annual Edition Christmas ornament has arrived – this could be the perfect gift to celebrate a milestone birthday, anniversary, wedding, graduation or other special occasion in 2018.
- The word “beautiful” describes the SCS pieces for 2018. Mudiwa is a giraffe whose name means ‘beloved one’ in the Africa language of Shona. This piece features a “special fading effect to emulate the graceful fur pattern of the animal.” The Giraffe Baby and Gazelle “complete this African scene which evoke the wild plains of the Serengeti Park.” These member pieces are exceptional this year. Good choice of design.
